Water Trouble Back Again

Usage Up Again Sunday

Weather, Fair Increase Fears

Water troubles developed in Lincoln again over the week end as consumption jumped over the critical point Sunday.

The new difficulties added more weight to fears of city officials that real difficulty may be experienced next Sunday when high consumption will accompany the start of the State Fair.

Mayor Clark Jeary expressed little immediate concern Sunday night after high consumption had considerably reduced water pressure in Lincoln, although he noted "poor compliance" with a request he had made asking Lincoln residents to discontinue all watering Sunday.

Even Numbers Monday

Jeary said the regular system of even numbered residences watering would be continued Monday but no other restrictions would be asked for the time being.

But the same new restrictions would "undoubtedly" have to be announced late in the week if the present weather and high consumption continue.

Water pressure in Lincoln Sunday took a sharp dip, particularly in southeast Lincoln where one woman reported that it took her an hour to get enough water to fill a pan to wash dishes.

Pressure Takes Dip

Pressure started falling Sunday morning, the A Street pumping station reported, and high line pressure dropped 12 pounds from a normal pressure of 110 pounds. Not until 2 p.m. did it start to pick up and then only slowly.

There are 18 wells in the city helping to alleviate the situation. They had been pumping four days straight up to Sunday, both day and night.

One pump at the Ashland pumping plant was shut down after midnight to keep from stirring up air in the low reservoirs—the large one with an 8.5 water level and the small one at 9.8 of midnight. Reservoir capacity is 15 feet.

Although some ground would be lost as a result of the shutdown, attendants expressed optimism that the reservoirs would be full enough by morning to be past the danger point.

Taxes Take $565 From Each Citizen

WASHINGTON (INS)—Federal, state and local governments together appeared Sunday to have collected about $565 from each citizen in the U.S. during the past fiscal year.

The estimate was derived from a Census Bureau report showing that in the 12 months ended June 30 the 47 states collected $10,542,000,000 in tax revenue, or $685 million more than in the previous year.

Commerce Department officials gave no exact figures on collections by local governments but estimated their tax take as about the same as the states'.

Added to the whopping $69½ billion in federal revenue for the same period, state and local collections make a grand total of about $90½ billion collected from a total population of 160 million persons.

Increased Activity
Census commented that the rise in state revenue was not caused by higher taxes in most cases, but by increased economic activity and higher prices which produced larger incomes and thus a broader field for taxation.

A general sales tax in 31 states proved to be the biggest single money-maker, returning $2,433,000,000 of the total. Other selective excises such as those on gasoline, tobacco and alcohol, swelled the sales tax total to $6,199,000,000.

Perhaps reflecting a tendency in many states to turn away from property tax as a revenue measure, this levy brought in only $365,000,000 in fiscal 1953—a drop of 1.3 per cent.

Nebraska collected $58,882,000 from its taxpayers during the fiscal year covered by the report.

New Car Taxation Law May Hike State Income

By ROY CAMPBELL
Star Staff Writer

The state of Nebraska may find itself due for some unexpected income the first of the year with returns of vehicle taxes due in January.

Main reason for this is that motor vehicles registered after last March 10, which heretofore have been tax free for a year, will be available for taxation. Two other factors are involved. First is that the official "Blue Book," price establishing manual for automobile sales prices, likely will be used for determining tax values of cars; second factor involved, and this on an increasing scale, is the automatic transmission which increases the value of most modern cars having it by some $250.

$1 Limit
The state this year is limited to $1 tax on all motor vehicles because of the changeover in the automobile taxation system. Starting the first of the year, all such vehicles will be taxed from the time they are purchased.

Income from vehicles under the $1 system will amount to some three quarters of a million dollars. The real tax bite will come the first of the year when all vehicle owners will shell out taxes based on the value of the vehicle.

The "Blue Book" manual used for value determination is published by the National Association of Dealers of Automobiles, and the prices listed generally are around $250 to $300 higher than the "wholesale" exchange would maintain. Automobile dealers have maintained this as only a guide, and does not mean the actual value of the vehicle, however.

Tax Commissioner Norris Anderson said a meeting of assessors will be called within next three weeks to determine the valuation of late 1953 and early 1954 vehicles. Anderson said a meeting last July of assessors concluded that automobiles registered by March 10 would be assessed at 75 to 80 per cent of actual value.

For those that will be taxed on the schedules the first of the year, an evaluation was set up for 100 per cent less 10 per cent for depreciation in the 1953 and late 1954 models. This was decided on the basis of an automobile's life being longer today than in past years.

Only speculation on what extra moneys the state may get from the new automobile taxation system, plus new automobiles sold after March 10, 1953, indicates the state may get more from this source than previously anticipated.

Other factors necessarily involved are the alleged slump in used car sales, and the recent $70 million fire at General Motors' transmission plant. Tax money collected from registrations goes into the general operating fund of the state, and if vehicle taxation dollars bring in more, as it is believed they will, the taxation on real estate may hold its present line or even be decreased by a small margin.

Hastings Man Dies After Denver Crash

DENVER (AP)—A 56-year-old Hastings, Neb., man died, apparently of a heart attack, following a three-car pileup at an east Denver intersection Sunday.

He was identified as Revel E. Dayton. His auto had been caught in the middle of a three-car collision.

Denver police said M. L. Hobbs, 26, of Hudson, Colo., had stopped his car at a traffic signal and Dayton's car crashed into the rear of Hobbs' auto. A moment later, a third car struck the rear of the Dayton auto.

Dayton climbed from his car to survey the damage, then collapsed and died.

Police said they were seeking the driver of the third car, who left the scene.

Nation, Nebraska Broiled

And No Relief Said In Sight

Nebraska and just about all the nation suffered Sunday as the August heat wave continued unabated.

Only the Rockies and the far west escaped the sweltering temperatures.

A run-down of Cornhusker state mercury readings is enough to initiate a drive in the Legislature seeking a year-around January.

Starting with Burwell's 99—the highest—and then seeking more livable readings, the record looks like this:

Grand Island 97, Lexington 97, Lincoln 97, Omaha 97, Imperial 96, North Platte 95, Valentine 93, Sidney 92 and Chadron 92.

Low a Warm 88

And last and by far the most pleasant spot in Nebraska Sunday was Scottsbluff—where the residents shivered in chilly 88-degree temperatures.

No relief is in sight Monday as the weatherman calls for fair skies and readings again in the 90s.

Elsewhere around the country Sunday the menu was much the same.

The sun melted two Chicago heat records as the mercury soared to 96.1. That reading broke a record for the date—96.7 degrees set in 1925. Sunday also was the sixth consecutive day when the temperature rose to 95 degrees or higher breaking a record of five such consecutive days set in 1911.

25 Fans 'Out'

At the Chicago White Sox-New York baseball doubleheader in Comiskey Park 25 fans were treated for heat prostration before the end of the first game. Chicago fire department ambulances and rescue squads alone handled 33 cases of persons overcome by heat in a 24-hour period. More than 750,000 persons flocked to the city beaches. Sunday was Chicago's 18th consecutive day without measurable precipitation.

The Chicago Weather Bureau reported the following mid-day temperatures: Baltimore 100; Washington 99; and Boston 99. New York reported a sizzling 95.9 at 3:05 p.m. New York's reading set the second consecutive new record for the date. Saturday's 100 also had set a record.

Ohio had its hottest Aug. 30 in history. Records were set by Columbus' 100 degrees, 96 in Cleveland, 98 in Cincinnati and 98 in Toledo. In the Cincinnati area acres of soybeans were withered by the heat and thousands of apples dropped prematurely from parched trees.

Rifle Discharge Seriously Injures Scottsbluff Lad

SCOTTSBLUFF (AP)—Dick Burkman, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Burkman of Scottsbluff, was reported in very serious condition in a hospital here Sunday night with a bullet wound in the chest.

Officials said Burkman and four or five other youths were riding in a car near Lake Alice, a community northwestern of Scottsbluff, Sunday afternoon.

His companions said Burkman was unloading a rifle when it discharged, sending a bullet into his chest.

Three Injured In This Demolished Car

Hurling 124 feet through the air, this car missed a sharp turn south of Lincoln on Pioneer's Blvd. on the Denton road, bounced once, and sank into a corn field with fire

Car Misses Curve, Burns; Three Hurt

Two Lincolmites and a Californian are in St. Elizabeth's Hospital after the car they were riding in flew off a 20-foot embankment after missing a curve on Pioneer's Blvd. across from the Yankee Hill Cemetery and burst into flames late Sunday afternoon.

The injured: Kenneth Karmen, 46, 1001 C, who received back injuries and lacerations, is reported in good condition by his physician.

Howard Campbell, 53, 1742 K, who suffered a cut scalp, possible fractured shoulder, abrasions on nose and abrasions and lacerations on arms; he is in "pretty fair" condition, and is being held overnight.

Walter Slotts, 44, Los Angeles, Calif., suffered an ear half cut off, cuts on scalp and arms, with full extent of injuries not determined awaiting x-rays. He is in "fair" condition and is being held.

The accident occurred at a sharp curve when the northbound vehicle, missing the turn, jumped a row of trees growing on the side of the embankment. The car spun through the air and bounced once on the hood and top of the car in an adjacent corn field before landing 30 feet away on its side. It had traveled a total of 124 feet through the air.

The car pinned one of the occupants by the running board. The other two were found lying in a field unconscious, about 16 feet from the vehicle.

The accident was discovered when a woman in a southbound car happened to look back and saw the accident car careening off the curve.

Her companion backed the car up to the scene of the accident and then called from the nearest farmhouse, the Ralph Huebner residence.

Huebner said the couple said there had been an accident and Mrs. Huebner called the Safety Patrol, while Mr. Huebner and several companions rushed to the scene.

They uprighted the flaming vehicle, which had pinned one of the men and carried him away from the flames.

Safety Patrolman I. E. Minary, called to the scene, tried to douse the flames with his small extinguisher. Unsuccessful, he called the fire department which did the job.

The car was completely demolished.

Reformatory Escapees Caught After Wild Chase In Kansas

ST. MARY'S, Kan. — (Lincoln Star Special) — Two reformatory escapees were collared Sunday in St. Mary's, Kan., following a wild dash in which the fugitives stole four cars, assaulted three persons and were finally stopped by a road block thrown up by Kansas authorities. A third escapee is still at large.

The captured men are Dennis White, 19, Pine Ridge, S. D., and Norman Marmet, Jr., 21, Phoenix, Ariz., who along with Jesse Lee Wayne Jones, 18, Artesia, N. M., walked off a milk detail at the reformatory early Saturday morning.

According to William Sullivan, chief of police at St. Mary's, the trio drove into town with a truck reported stolen in Lincoln. He said his nightwatchman gave chase and cornered the truck in a blind alley.

While driving the prisoners to the city jail, the watchman was assaulted and the trio stole his car. It was at this point Sullivan said, that Jones separated from his two companions. The watchman was found later by two persons going to church and the alarm was turned in.

Meanwhile both Marmet and White abandoned the police car and had stolen a soldier's car they had forced off the road. Later the two escapees drove into a farmer's yard, and after forcing the farmer to fill his car with gas drove off in it. A short time later they ended up in a ditch with that car and a second farmer obligingly stopped his car to help out. Forcibly taking his car, the two were soon stopped by a road block hastily formed by the Kansas Safety Patrol and local law officers.

Beaten by the youths, the police said, were Edgar Ault, at his farm home near Wamego, Kan.; Marshal Ernest Reser, at St. Mary's, Kan., who is in a hospital in Topeka, Kan., and Harry Chilcott, who is in a hospital in Westmoreland, Kan.

Chief Sullivan indicated that the three escapees had broken into a Sabathia, Kan., liquor store early Saturday morning.

The three escapees, according to J. A. Mason, captain of the reformatory guards, were reformatory trustees engaged as milkers on a dairy detail.

Motorists Be Careful! Kids Start Back To School Today

Summer vacations in Lincoln and Lancaster County rural youngsters end Monday morning as most schoolhouse doors—public and parochial—open for the fall term.

The opening day brought a welcome to the expected 15,650 students and the 725-member faculty from Supt. Steven N. Watkins, and a reminder to motorists from Capt. C. C. Hurd, Lincoln traffic control officer.

Expressing a wish that all teachers and students would have a pleasant and profitable year, Dr. Watkins added that he hoped they would find "the physical facilities conducive to pleasant work."

Resume Habit
With an eye on school children's safety, Capt. Hurd emphasized the need for motorists to resume the habit of stopping for school signs.

"Having driven for three months without stopping for them has gotten motorists out of the habit," he said.

Capt. Hurd observed, "We want our traveling public to be alert for all school children beginning Monday."

Elementary school pupils are to report at 9 a.m., Monday, and junior and senior high students, at 8:40 a.m. An exception is Lincoln High School where classes begin at 8:30 a.m. A full day's schedule is planned at all public schools.

Husker students will be transported by bus to city schools.

Among the activities preceding the opening day, was a welcoming tea Sunday afternoon for about 300 girls who will be attending Lincoln High School for the first time. The tea, sponsored by the senior counselors, was at the school building. The 153 new teachers in Lincoln Public Schools were guests at a noon luncheon last week.

Freed Mullen Man Describes POW Strikes
Freed Mullen Village, Korea (AP)—A Mullen, Neb., Air Force man, returned by Communists in the prisoner exchange Sunday, told about "labor relations" with his captors.

A2c Jacques M. Jeffords, 24, captured Nov. 11, 1950, when his B-26 bomber was shot down by anti-aircraft fire, said he was taken to Camp 3 where "we pulled off several strikes last year."

Jeffords said, however, prisoners lost most of the strikes, but won a big one in which prisoners refused to participate in a camp "Olympic Games" program unless the Chinese promised not to make pictures of the events.

"We suspected they were going to use the sports for propaganda," Jeffords said.

Jeffords said that after he parachuted from his stricken plane North Koreans who captured him took away his flying suit and made him march 180 miles for 40 winter days in only a light pair of pants and shirt. He said his captors questioned him for three days about Air Force installations in Japan and the United States, but got nothing from him despite their threats of death and torture if he didn't talk.

Armored Columns On Move

Western Allies Urge 'Moderate' Dispute Policy

ROME (INS)—Italy sent armored columns rumbling toward the Yugoslav frontier Sunday in the Trieste dispute and Yugoslavia countered with new regulations for its zone in the free territory.

Each side claimed the other had annexationist designs on Trieste.

Italian tanks and troop reinforcements were sent to the Yugoslav border as Rome's answer to hints by Belgrade newspapers that Marshal Tito may be preparing a coup for outright annexation of Zone B.

The Yugoslav News Agency Tanjug said a Yugoslav military order issued Sunday extended new economic regulations, in effect in Yugoslavia proper to the Yugoslav occupation zone of the free territory.

(Agence France Presse said a Belgrade broadcast identified Col. Miles Stamatovitch, commander of the Yugoslav military administration in Zone B, as the source of the economic order.)

Italian political sources called Yugoslavia's move "another violation of the peace treaty."

Zone B of the former Italian Trieste area is occupied by Yugoslavia while Zone A is occupied by U. S. and British forces under terms of the 1947 Italian peace treaty.

(London dispatches reported the U. S., British and French governments were consulting on the Trieste flareup, and were expected to urge Italy and Yugoslavia to pursue a course of moderation in the dispute. The U.S. was reported "concerned" over recent developments.)

Informants at the big Italian Udine base disclosed tank columns moved to the border between Trieste and Gorizia through the night as a "precautionary measure."

War Psychosis
Yugoslavia accused Italy meanwhile of "aggressive maneuvers" near the frontier aimed at creating a "war psychosis in Trieste."

The charge was made by the news agency Tanjug and broadcast radio Belgrade as the question of Trieste was increased over the disputed territory.

The broadcast said two Italian divisions were moved up to the frontier around Gorizia, and that Italian tanks are patrolling the streets of the city.

Yugoslav Foreign Minister Ales Bebler charged Sunday night that Italy is attempting to "annex Trieste and the Slovene coast by all the means in her power."

In a speech at Udine, he claimed Italy is "being helped in that objective by the Allied Military Administration in Trieste."

(Agence France Presse quoted Bebler as adding that Yugoslavia had tried to settle the Trieste question but could not find "understanding abroad.")

Before Yugoslavia broke with Moscow, the Western powers promised the return of Trieste to Italy—a promise the new Italian government has declared should be kept.

Eldridge Durbrow, U. S. minister in Rome, called on Italian Premier Alcide De Gasperi Sunday, reportedly to express Washington's concern over the new flare-up of hostility.

It was understood he also promised a new U. S. effort to get Italy and Yugoslavia to open direct negotiations on the Trieste controversy.

Efforts to open direct talks with Yugoslavia have been costly received thus far by Belgrade.

The Italian government blacked out all news of the troop movements near the border.

Stocks, Currency On Drying Racks

Stock certificates salvaged along with $85,000 in currency and 5,000 British pounds sterling from the sunken freighter Flying Enterprise, are hung up to dry at Brussels, Belgium, where recovered valuables are being sorted. An insurance adjuster said Sunday the Flying Enterprise carried $250,000 in bank notes when she sank last year off the British coast after an epic struggle by her skipper, Capt. Kurt Carlsen, to save his ship. (AP Wirephoto via Radio from London Sunday Night.)

Spending On Arms Still High

May Wipe Out
Expected Saving

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Defense Department stuck by an estimate Sunday that the military will spend about a billion and a half more dollars than the White House and Budget Bureau expect during the current fiscal year.

The Pentagon estimate, it correct, would wipe out most of the two billion dollar decline in federal spending claimed by Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey in his revised budget last week. The estimate has remained unchanged since the Korean armistice July 28.

A spokesman for Defense Comptroller W. J. McNeil explained that the true actually will save about a billion dollars the first year, but that mean-while anticipated plane deliveries to the Air Force have been upped by about the same amount.

McNeil's estimate of cash outgo from the armed services during the year ending next July 1 therefore remains at 43 billion 200 million dollars.

In his revised budget for federal spending last week, Humphrey on the same basis estimated the services would spend 41 billion 700 million.

The basic difference goes back to the original budget submitted to Congress last January by former President Truman. At that time, the Pentagon estimated military spending at 48 billions while the budget placed the figure at 45 and one-half billion.

Treasurer Denies Theft, Pleads Guilty

ALLIANCE, Neb. (Lincoln Star Special)—The former Box Butte County treasurer who Saturday denied admitting she embezzled any money, signed a plea of guilty in County Court earlier in the week on the basis she was responsible for any shortages in county funds, explained her attorney Sunday.

However, continued Atty. W. Ellis of Alliance, the former treasurer, Mrs. Eunice Long, 36, did not admit she was criminally responsible. Mrs. Long was bound over to District Court on her own recognition.

Meanwhile, Co. Atty. Robert Moran said he is waiting until completion of the auditors' investigation of the office before taking further action.

Mrs. Long, accused of taking more than $1,800 in county funds by keeping tax money and the duplicate tax receipt involved, issued the following statement, in part:

(I have) . . . "never during the time I was in the County Treasurer's office, in any capacity, embezzled, taken, or converted to my use, one cent of Box Butte County's money."

I have never knowingly or understandingly admitted to anyone I was guilty of embezzlement of county funds, notwithstanding the newspaper and radio statements.

Appointed to succeed Mrs. Long, who resigned while charges were being filed against her, was Mrs. Gwen Warthen, deputy in the office since Aug. 2, 1949. She will serve through 1954.

In Lincoln, State Auditor Ray C. Johnson estimated it would take about two weeks to complete the audit of the county treasury.

News Around The Globe

GG Cuts Jaundice

BOSTON (AP)—Successful use of gamma globulin in preventing spread of yellow jaundice in families was reported Sunday by three doctors associated with Harvard Medical School.

The doctors, Benji F. Brooks, David Yi-Yung Hsia and Sidney S. Gellis, announced their findings after an extensive study of the disease, known medically as infectious hepatitis.

They said the disease was stopped "dead in its tracks" when gamma globulin was administered to all members of a family immediately after one member was stricken.

1 In 7 Untouchable

NEW DELHI (AP)—Every seventh man in India belongs to a class once known as the untouchables, census officials said Sunday.

They released details of the 1951 census report showing that, of a population of 356,700,000, a total of 51,300,000 had sprung from the laboring group that for centuries has been at the bottom of the caste ladder.

Caste discrimination was abolished constitutionally after India won independence in 1947. A government spokesman has said legislation would be introduced to punish any attempt to continue untouchability.

Defense Stressed

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Civil Defense Administration called upon U.S. cities Sunday to take another look at precautions against a possible sneak attack.

Officials apparently believe Russian possession of the dread hydrogen bomb will make more Americans realize how vital it is that municipalities be adequately prepared.

The CDA, noting that "the possibility of an enemy attack may require extensive reorientation in our thinking," wants city governments which have not yet done so to survey their critical features preliminary to "realistic" civil defense planning.

Collective Program Set

TOKYO (Monday) (INS)—Communist China today announced a program which will abolish private ownership of farms and end with complete collectivization. In an article by Teng Tze-hui, chairman of the rural work commission of the Central Committee of the Chinese Communist Party.

Israel Denies Attack

TEL AVIV (INS)—Israel denied Sunday an Egyptian claim that Israel attacked a refugee camp at El Boreig in the Gaza area on the Egyptian frontier.

A Cairo communique had reported 15 Arab refugees were killed and 22 others wounded in the attack.

NATO Services

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP)—Representatives of the 14 NATO nations held religious services and a cultural exhibition Sunday as prelude to their second conference on mutual understanding among the Atlantic Pact nations.

Plenary sessions Monday will begin discussing creation of commissions to deal with Atlantic community organization, and the contribution of organized labor and organized youth.

Russian 'Wedge'

HONGKONG (INS)—A Chinese Nationalist newspaper in Hongkong said Sunday Russia was ready to propose "a package deal" for the entry of both Red China and Japan to the United Nations.

The paper, the Wah Kiu Yat Po, declared that the Soviet Union aimed to drive a wedge in American-Japanese relations by proposing simultaneous admission to the U.N. of Japan and Red China.

Lindstrom Lectures

HELSINKI, Finland (AP)—Dr. Peter Lindstrom, former husband of movie star Ingrid Bergman, presented his new method for ultrasonic brain surgery for the first time Sunday night in a lecture before the Nordic Neurological Society.

The method involves use of ultrasonic waves of extremely high frequency instead of the traditional scalpel in treatment of brain ailments.

Lindstrom is chief neurosurgeon at Aspinwall Veterans Hospital in Pittsburgh. He has spent several years developing his method in animal experiments before applying it to humans.

Progress Noted

NEW YORK (AP)—James C. Dunn, U.S. ambassador to Spain, said Sunday he believed the United States is making progress in negotiations with Spain for the use of air bases in return for aid.

Dunn arrived from Spain by air. He was called home for consultation by the State Department in connection with the negotiations.

Synagogue Dedicated

For 12-Year Service

More than 300 members of the Redeemer Lutheran Church congregation surprised the Rev. Melvin J. Tassler Sunday night when they gathered in the Church parlors to present him with a gift in appreciation for his 12 years service in the Church.

The congregation presented him with a watch and gave him a family a purse. Refreshments were served and a short program was observed under the direction of Mrs. Julius Humann.

John Westerberg, chairman of the congregation, presented the gifts.

'Dynamite' Was Gone

SEATTLE (AP)—Police were most helpful in bringing calming truth to alarmed citizens.

In Seattle a country club caretaker excitedly called the cops and said a steady tick-tick-tick he heard was a "time bomb outside the back door." Police discovered it was water dripping from the eaves onto a beer can.

Dixie Demos To Boycott Adlai Rally

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Holland (D-Fla.) said Sunday he has declined an invitation to a Democratic rally featuring Adlai E. Stevenson at Chicago next month because he thinks the South will gain nothing there.

Holland, whose home state of Florida went for Eisenhower and against Stevenson in last year's presidential election, said in an interview he finds no tangible signs that the party leadership has changed its views on issues that cost Stevenson 57 electoral votes in four southern states.

Hard To Woo

In this connection, the Florida senator said he believes Dixie Democrats "who kicked over the traces in 1952 are going to be difficult to woo back into the national party fold unless some changes are made."

"All of the efforts to bring the Solid South back into the national party will be unavailing until the party organization takes the South into full partnership in drafting the platform and picking the nominees," he declared.

Holland's decision not to attend the Sept. 14-15 Chicago rally apparently is in line with the intended action of some other southern Democrats.

Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) who helped swing Virginia to Eisenhower last year, said he has no present intentions of attending.

However, Sen. Olin Johnston (D-S.C.) said that if he can work out his schedule, he will go to Chicago.

Byrnes Won't Go

Gov. James F. Byrnes, South Carolina Democrat, who supported Eisenhower, recently made it clear that he will take no part in the Chicago proceedings.

Byrnes and Gov. Allen Shivers of Texas have made it plain they have no enthusiasm for Stevenson as a possible 1956 nominee.

Texas also went Republican in 1952 and Shivers publicly backed Eisenhower over the submerged lands issue last spring. Although that has faded into the background, with enactment of a new submerged lands law, the fundamental controversy over civil rights remains as much alive as it was when it plagued the 1952 convention.

Southern absentees may be significant in giving some indication of the party's chances of achieving at least outward unity before 1956.

However, Mitchell has been insisting that the Chicago meeting focus be placed on Democratic Senatorial candidates in next year's election, with a minimum of talk about 1956.

With a couple of exceptions, the 10 Southern Democrats who will be running in Senate races next year won't be paying much attention to the national party's stand on such issues as civil rights.

International Society Set Gathering For $85,000 18th Century Party

PARIS (AP)—The international set is gathering for a big shindig, estimated to cost $85,000, Tuesday night at the Chiberta Country Club, just outside Biarritz in southwestern France.

The Marquis de Cuevas, best known to the public as a ballet impresario, is the official host for this mammoth costume ball, which will have a strictly 18th Century decor.

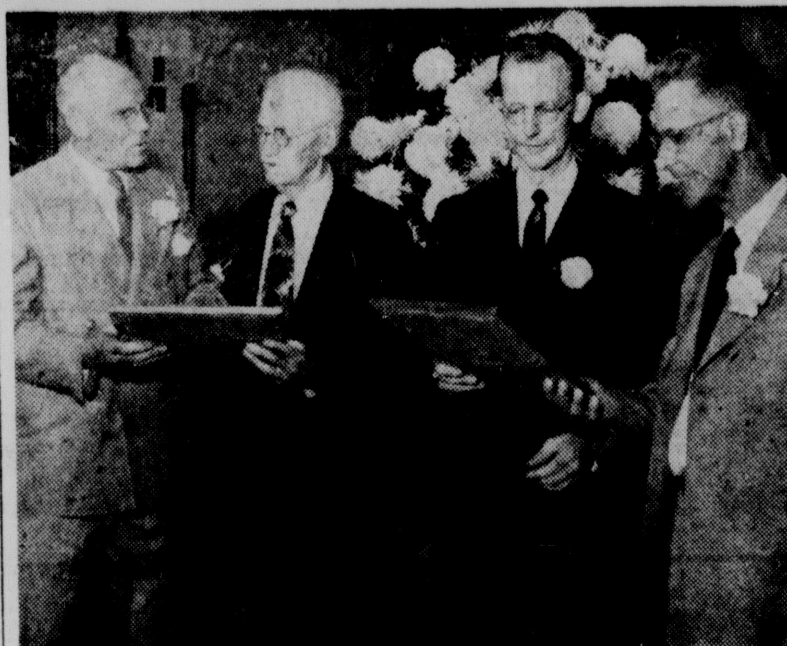

Invited guests, numbering between 2,000 and 3,000 persons, will include ex-kings, dukes, duchesses, film stars, gossip columnists, fashion designers and people with just a lot of money.

A New York public relations organization handled many of the arrangements and issued invitations in the name of the 61-year-old marquis, a descendant of Don Juan de Cuevas, a Spanish general who participated in the conquest of Peru and Chile.

The marquis himself was born in Santiago, Chile, and married a Rockefeller heiress. They spend most of their time traveling.

For all that, the marquis is being quite democratic about his party. And he is making reporters and photographers more than welcome.

Even the press and police will have to be in 18th Century costume.

Hickman Church Celebrates Anniversary

Present and past pastors of Hickman Presbyterian Church were among the distinguished guests at the church's 75th anniversary celebration Sunday.

300 Attend Hickman Church's 75th Anniversary Celebration

Special worship services commemorating the past, present and future were conducted at the Hickman Presbyterian Church Sunday in celebration of the church's 75th anniversary.

More than 300 persons were on hand for the all-day observance.

Three of the former seven pastors of the church presided at the morning service honoring the past. They were the Rev. Herman G. Blaschke of Hastings (1924 to 1934); the Rev. Jerry Thaden of Lake Park, Ia. (1935 to 1942); and the Rev. Fred J. Fahrion of Tarkio, Mo. (1943 to 1949).

Chaplain Richard Ohden stationed with the U.S. Navy in Yokohama was the only living former pastor unable to attend. Chaplain Ohden served the church from 1950 to 1952.

Observe Present

The afternoon worship service was held in observance of the present. The Rev. James K. Lyons, present pastor, made a few remarks on the program of the church and read letters from Chaplain Ohden and Harold DeVries, a young Hickman man now studying for the ministry at Savannah, Ill.

Descendants of the three earliest ministers conducted a memorial tribute at the afternoon service. Taking part were: Anna Berk of Lincoln, superintendent of nurses at Bailey's Hospital, granddaughter of the Rev. John Berk, first pastor of the church.

45 Officers Among U.S. Returnees

From Press Dispatches
PANMUNJOM (Monday) — One hundred and fifty Americans, including one group of 50 sergeants and a total of 45 officers, crossed into freedom in the blazing sun at Panmunjom today.

Two incidents at the Communist reception point briefly disrupted today's exchange, but in the main, the Communist prisoners returned by the United Nations went through the repatriation quietly.

One Red prisoner threw a handful of rice at Maj. Dan Kane, shouting "Give this to your starving people!" and another attempted to read a "protest" to Col. Francis Disher.

American protests to the Communist officials halted further incidents.

The Americans were returned in three groups, the last group passing through the exchange point at 10:40 a.m. This group included 17 officers, and the second group contained 28 officers.

The repatriates came back amid growing hopes that as many as 500 more Americans than expected may be liberated.

The additional Americans presumably would be those captured late in the fighting but carried on U. S. casualty lists as "missing in action."

The sergeants returning in today's first group jumped briskly from the six Russian-built trucks which brought them from the Communist north. But they were quiet. There were no sick or wounded among them.

Allied trucks rumbled north through this western Korean neutral zone with groups of North Koreans. With today's return of 2,400 Korean Reds the United Nations command has freed more than 62,000 Communist prisoners of 74,500 who wish to return to Red rule.

There were no Nebraskans returned today. Koreans released were Lt. E. C. Moore, USN, son of Mrs. L. M. Swaford of Topeka; Sgt. Charles D. Bowens, husband of Mrs. Dolores J. Bowens, Kansas City; and S. Sgt. Lee H. Miller, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Duden, Levant, Kan.

Joe McCarthy Asking State To Look Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.) said Sunday he is asking the State Department to look deeper into a story of an alleged attempt by some of its employees to extort $150,000 from a friendly foreign government.

Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell announced last week the Justice Department has dropped its investigation of the case on grounds that the 3-year statute of limitations would bar any prosecutions.

McCarthy said July 23 that some unidentified persons working for the Department under the Truman administration got $150,000 from a foreign government for a legal service to which the country was entitled "without paying any bribes."

The Wisconsin senator said "all evidence indicates there was a solicitation by State Department officials" but no certainty that any money actually changed hands.

McCarthy stressed "there is no indication of any wrongdoing on the part of the foreign nation concerned."

He still declined to name the country, reportedly a Latin American nation, or the State Department employees.

McCarthy said he has written Scott McLeod, State Department security officer, "asking a check insofar as wrongdoing by any present or former employees of the Department may be concerned."

State Chambers Urge Local Chancellor Selection

NU Faculty Report Is Said Near

The special University of Nebraska faculty committee studying possible candidates for the position of chancellor expects to have a report available in the near future, Chairman M. A. Basoco said Sunday.

Chairman of the Board of Regents C. Y. Thompson of West Point told The Star Sunday he expects the committee will report at the Regents' September meeting.

Thompson stated he hopes the committee "will give us a lead so that we won't have to do all the sifting ourselves."

Of course, the chairman added, the Board of Regents also "may have someone in mind."

Works Hard

Dr. Basoco said merely that the faculty committee "has been working very hard on the study."

Concerning the geographical home of any potential appointee, Thompson said one Chamber of Commerce in the state maintained there were men in Nebraska capable of handling the position and it did not see why the Regents needed to go out of the state.

Thompson added, however, that he thinks this will not be a deciding factor. The man's qualities will be considered first, he said. He added, also, "we've got to try to get a man who will be with us long enough to get his feet on the ground."

Thompson expressed approval of the work of Acting Chancellor John K. Selleck, who was appointed this summer to fill temporarily the vacancy left by retiring Chancellor R. G. Gustavson. Selleck has announced he is not a candidate for a permanent appointment.

Too Socialized?

Thompson summarized statements sent him by various Chambers in the state by saying, "their point seems to be we haven't pushed private enterprise enough."

He answered this charge by referring to the Board, composed of professional and business men who advocate private enterprise.

Thompson noted that the movement seems to be spearheaded by "certain individuals."

He said the suggestions sent by Chambers did not "stress any other ideas."

Airmen Arrested After Tiff With Omaha Police

OMAHA (AP)—About 25 airmen were taken into custody by Air Police and two airmen were arrested by Omaha police following a skirmish between police and members of an Offutt Air Force Base squadron.

The scuffle was over whether an injured airmen should be moved by the fire department rescue squad or an Air Force ambulance.

The two arrested were booked for being drunk, disturbing the peace and interfering with police officers. They are AIC Paul H. Shelton, 26, and Staff Sgt. Arthur Herkowitz, 21.

Police said the injured man, Glen R. Pace Jr., 25, suffered a cut lip. They said he fell down a flight of stairs at the hall at which the squadron was having a party.

Lancaster's Fair 'Best' And 'Biggest'

The Lancaster County Fair which opens Monday at the State Fair Grounds was described by County Agent V. H. Petersen as "the biggest and best so far."

Petersen said that, although there is a slight decline in the number of beef cattle entered by 4-H members this year, entries in other divisions are over the record.

County home economics club members will enter more than 1,700 exhibits in the fair. They will enter these in the fair Monday while livestock will be entered Tuesday. Dairy classes will have 123 entries in the fair and there will be 52 head of sheep.

Petersen said about 90 head of beef cattle will be entered and more than 100 head of hogs. Rib-bone winners in livestock divisions will be announced Thursday. The dairy show is scheduled for Wednesday and the beef show for Wednesday afternoon.

Another feature of the fair which is expected to be large this year is the tractor driving contest. Petersen said about 60 club members in the county are eligible to take part in this event.

The four-day fair will close Thursday night with a two-hour show in the 4-H club building on the fairgrounds. The show will include a parade of beef and dairy winners and top home economics winners. There will also be a dress revue and a musical program.

Rev. David Evans Combines Musical Talent And Ministry

The ministry and music are proving to be a successful combination for a young Lincoln man.

The Rev. Donald M. Evans, former minister at Second Baptist Church, is visiting Lincoln before returning to his studies at Union Theological Seminary School of Sacred Music in New York City.

Rev. Evans was guest minister at First Baptist Church in Talmage Sunday morning. To seek and save the lost is the mission and message of the God in Christ, he told the congregation.

"The lost may not know his Saver, but in Christ, God agonizes until mankind accepts salvation," he said.

He used three parables of Jesus to illustrate four conditions of lostness prevalent in society.

Forget and Lose

The Lost Sheep, he said, is the drifter and represents persons constantly seeking greener pastures. In their search for further security and self-preservation, Rev. Evans said, these persons forget the rest of the world and eventually are lost.

"The Lost Coin," he said, "was separated from the other coins and was valueless to its owner. To be separated from the needs and concerns of others is to be a valueless member of society."

The Prodigal Son parable illustrates lostness by deliberate choice, he said. Man's immaturity in choosing a way opposed to the will of God leads to lostness, he said, and worship of the creature rather than the Creator.

"Self-righteous and self-pitied illustrates lostness by deliberate choice, he said. Man's immaturity in choosing a way opposed to the will of God leads to lostness, he said, and worship of the creature rather than the Creator."

"Our refusal to accept the sinner and our pity over our own circumstances is characteristic of another lost prodigal."

Since graduation from Nebraska Wesleyan University in 1950, Rev. Evans has studied at Colgate Rochester Divinity School.

Legion Battles Over Policy On Air Force

ST LOUIS (AP)—A major battle over Air Force budget cuts shaped up Sunday on the eve of the American Legion's 35th annual national convention.

The hot fight over air strength seethed behind closed committee doors while thousands of legionnaires streamed into town for their annual spree.

No matter what the committees do, it seemed certain the air power controversy would erupt on the floor of the convention, which starts Monday.

"Anything can happen on the floor," said Roscoe Turner, famed speed pilot and chairman of the Legion's aeronautics committee.

While the committees hammered out national Legion policies, the 40 & 8, fun making branch of the Legion, paraded through downtown St. Louis in sweltering 90-degree weather. Bells clanged, whistles tooted, drums boomed and it was every man for himself in the teeming traffic.

The colorful 40 & 8 parade was scheduled to last five hours. But the convention's "big parade" comes Tuesday. Officials said it would continue 10 hours.

In the committee maneuvering, Turner's aeronautics committee presented a report to the Legion's national security commission charging that Air Force budget cuts were "ill-timed." It urged that the new joint chiefs of staff re-examine military needs.

It charged the present Air Force is not adequate and is especially short in replacement air crews.

Chamber Women Begin Oak Creek Park Fund Drive

A $5,000 public subscription drive to speed development of Oak Creek Park was to be kicked off Monday by the women's division of the Chamber of Commerce.

Thus far, $1575 has been raised through the advance gift division. Remaining funds will be sought through an appeal to the public during the campaign which will extend through Sept. 9.

The development plan is approved by the city engineer and the city park and recreation departments. The fund will be used for construction of roads and parking areas with construction set to begin this fall. Estimated construction cost is about $10,000.

Contributions are being sent to the Oak Creek Park Fund, Chamber of Commerce.

Amelia Mariscal Hurt In Two-Car Collision

Amelia Mariscal, 21, 1721 M., suffered scalp injuries in a two-car accident at 14th and R Streets Sunday afternoon.

She was taken to St. Elizabeth's Hospital where several stitches were taken. She was later released.

The accident occurred when a car driven by Ysidoro Gandara, 21, of 334 No. 16th that was traveling north on 14th collided with a car driven by Ben McCovey, 36, of Hastings, that was going west on R Street. The injured woman was riding in the Gandara vehicle.

He Should Have Lost His Voice

DETROIT (AP)—A Detroit beggar, arrested at a downtown corner with $337 in cash in his pockets and a bankbook showing a balance of $4,700, was brought before Judge W. McKay Skillman.

"Where did you get the money?" asked the judge.

"I'm deaf, I can't hear you," replied the beggar.

"Where did you get this money?" the judge shouted.

"I can't hear you," the beggar repeated.

"I'll fine you $150," the judge remarked, conversationally.

"I won't pay it," the beggar yelled.

He was sentenced to 90 days in jail.

From Lincoln Pulpits:

Christian Home Is Bulwark Of Civilization—Rev. Ahlman

The Christian home is the bulwark of civilization, the Rev. Arnold G. Ahlman told his congregation at Christ Lutheran Church Sunday morning.

On the eve of the opening of school, Rev. Ahlman used as his text Judges 13:8: "Teach us what we shall do unto the child."

In some areas there is a lack of facilities and a trained personnel, he said. But he said, American children will be better trained in the three "R's" than the children of any other nation although a few persons again will criticize seemingly revolutionary methods in pedagogy.

"The home and the church," he said, "must supply training in the fourth 'R'—religion. Christ encouraged fathers and mothers to pray with and for their children and to train them to know and love the Lord."

Rev. Ahlman said much responsibility is placed upon young mothers. He asked which young women will be better mothers and rear better children:

"Those in the churches or in the taverns? Bible readers or readers of filthy pulp magazines? Sunday School teachers or

Everything's New

A NEW WEEK begins today—a new month tomorrow—a new year 17 weeks from Friday—Everything's new—even the news—And by the way, you must have been startled when you read the chatter column head last Saturday afternoon—that "New Drought in News" business certainly gave pause for thought—Anyway, it was all a mistake—the head should have said "No Drought in the News"—but since neither version is what one might term scintillating wit, no harm was done—

WE TOLD you several days ago that Mrs. Samuel Waugh would be arriving from Washington on Sunday—She did, and Mr. Waugh will come for the Labor Day week-end—so all of that isn't news—But what is news is the fact that Mr. Waugh's daughter, Mrs. John Brownlee, and the three young Brownlees, Martha, Johnny and Elizabeth, will be leaving on Monday morning for Colorado Springs where they will spend the school year.

Numerous small and informal courtesies have been given for Mrs. Brownlee during the past week or two.

THIS WAS the summer that Prof. and Mrs. L. C. Wimberly decided to spend their entire vacation at home. However, the past days have been far from dull at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Wimberly—all five of their grandchildren have been on hand to keep them company—Arriving simultaneously for a week's visit were Douglas, Kathy and Vicki Sarbach of Cuyahoga Falls, O., and Stephanie and Tad Wimberly of Birmingham, Ala.

We think, however, that we should add the news that the children were accompanied by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald V. Sarbach (Ruth Wimberly), and Mr. and Mrs. Steven B. Wimberly.

BACK HOME again are Miss Marguerite Klinker and Miss Clara Rausch who arrived home from Europe the past week-end—just exactly three months to the day from the time they left—But in that three months Miss Klinker and Miss Rausch have done considerable traveling—They visited England, spent some time in the Scandinavian countries—went from there to The Netherlands—into Switzerland—Loitered a bit around the Italian lakes, and devoted some time to northern Italy. From Italy to France—and then home.

SOMEONE told us that Mrs. A. C. Lau, who has been spending most of the summer at her summer home on Pelican Lake, is due to arrive home most any day now.

HEARD THAT there are house guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. L. V. Skidmore—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilcox (she is the former Rosalie Skidmore—and Mr. Wilcox is Mrs. Skidmore's son) arrived from Tulsa, Okla., on Saturday evening for a visit with their parents—

And coming from New York City on Saturday afternoon, to spend the week-end with the Skidmores before going on to the west coast, were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Tennant (Marcella Slajchert).

By BEN YOUR HAIRDRESSER

At least once each week and if possible on the same day each week, every woman should take time for a thorough job of grooming. Spend several hours if you can (most of us can find the time somehow) in giving yourself the full treatment. The good tub soaking, the really thorough hair brushing and lace creaming, repairing, eyeing with a slightly different lip shape. You spend a little time each day repairing damage to nails, hair-do and make-up but this once a week thorough clean-up habit will pay big dividends in a better appearance.

Fairbury Band Festival Draws 3,000

10 Nebraska Kansas Towns Represented

By BILL HINEL
Beatrice Staff

FAIRBURY, Neb. (Lincoln Star Special)—Music filled the air here Sunday as the 19th annual Festival of Bands was held with more than 400 musicians doing their bit. An estimated 3,000 persons jammed the City Park bandshell and the surrounding park area despite 90 degree heat.

At 1 p.m. the Mahaska-Munden, Kan., band under the direction of Harold L. Chatelain, who also directs the Fairbury band, opened the afternoon schedule of 30-minute concerts. Their first number, "The March of Youth," by Joseph Olivetti, was symbolic of the festival which was composed of many high school students and recent graduates.

The afternoon schedule was complete and on the minute as one band after another took the stage for presentation. Marches were the order of the day although there were many popular numbers as well as classical. Several soloists performed also. In the order named bands from Hebron, Wilber, Washington, Kan., Geneva, Marysville, Kan., Crete, Red Cloud, Beatrice and Fairbury performed.

Masters of ceremonies were Max Denney, H. C. Acker and Darrell Junker, all of Fairbury. Highlights of the festival was the massed band concert at 8 p.m. in which 400 musicians from all 10 bands performed each with its own director. Food and soloist during the massed band concert was Mrs. Jeanne Grosjain Phillips of Red Cloud, whose rich contralto voice in the rendition of "Thine Alone" and "Love Come Back to Me" kept the sweltering audience applauding for more.

The Rev. F. H. Stephenson gave the invocation. Midway during the evening performance Arlo Howell, past commander of General Squires Post No. 3113, Veterans of Foreign Wars, presented the club's annual citizenship award to Dorthea Ridder of Fairbury, 33-year-old muscular dystrophy victim.

The award, consisting of a medal and citation, was made on behalf of post commander George Galbraith and the post. A committee of awards has chosen Miss Ritter for the award on the basis of "her valuable and untiring efforts and service for the benefits of sufferers of muscular dystrophy in Nebraska and in the nation."

Probably no one in Nebraska has done so much for victims of the dread disease as Miss Ritter who early last year organized the Nebraska chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association. She was elected and re-elected its president and has won the support of Gov. Robert Crosby and his aide, Max Denney. She resides with her father, August Ridder, in Fairbury, and aside from her duties as president of the association spends much of her time corresponding with fellow victims all over the United States.

There are about 100,000 sufferers of the disease in America and there is no known cure.

Falls City Corn, Planted In Sand, Well Developed

FALLS CITY, Neb. (AP)—Corn planted on heavily fertilized sand along the Missouri River may make 50 bushels to the acre. The sand was left on the farm belonging to Harry Huston, Salem banker, in the great flood of 1952.

Dr. M. D. Weldon, soils and fertilizer specialist from the University of Nebraska, advised Huston that the plan would work. The fertilizer went on at the rate of 200 pounds of bulk material to the acre. About 60 acres were treated, and a 10-acre check strip was left untreated. It is estimated that the unfertilized strip will not make over five bushels to the acre at the most.

NEBRASKA COURTHOUSES

Nebraska City residents are proud of the favorable comment the graceful old Otoe County Courthouse prompts from visitors. Built in 1864, the building is reportedly the oldest public structure in Nebraska. Its graceful lines and high, narrow windows identify it as a product of American architecture which prevailed before the Civil War. The second floor ceilings were built 16 feet from the floor, a fact that adds graceful height to windows but presents problems in modern-day heating. A mural of pioneer day Nebraska City is located on the first floor. It was painted by Frank Zimmer, a native of the city. (Star Staff Photo)

The first day of University of Nebraska football practice Sunday was devoted to checking out equipment, weighing in, posing for pictures and running the mile. It was also the first time many of the coaches and players had seen each other since spring and many old acquaintances were renewed.

Bill Glassford, Bob Faris, Walter (Mike) Milligan and Ray Prochaska.

The race was run in two heats. Backs and ends ran first and linemen ran later. The players ran in the grass because their cleats would dig

Chiefs Drop Pueblo 4-2 As Bush Homers

... Andy, Mathieson Face Sky Sox

By NORRIS ANDERSON
Sports Editor, The Star

Charley Dessen is just a smug second-guesser and Casey Stengel is simply a lucky old hunch-player.

Purely on the strength of the Lincoln Chiefs' 4-2 victory over Pueblo Sunday afternoon at sun-baked Sherman Field, Walt Linden, in his managerial debut, supplants these celebrated brain trusts as foremost drillmaster of cerebral castles.

Here was Lincoln strangled in a 1-1 tie when Centerfielder Sam Supizio was shaken up in a violent collision with Jim Gen-den sensing the latent anger nurtured by Bush against the Sherman Field leftfield wall. Some said that Linden knew Andy was a hot-weather hitter and others insisted that shades of Babe Ruth had crossed the bald mountaineer. The Babe started out as a pitcher, you know.

Several unkind realists suspected that Holden was ineligible because his name was unintentionally omitted from the pre-game list handed to three semi-blind mice named Joe Eckstine, Bob Phillips and Joe (Onions) Cibula.

"I wish to refute that rumor," said no less authority than Farm Director John Mullen of the parent Milwaukee Braves, whose watchful eye was measuring Lincoln muscle and reflexes. "For my dough, Linden hunched that Bush was due."

As the opinions flared, Joe Rivich singled, Tom Neill doubled, his home and Fred Hancock, in turn, singled Neill across the platter.

Kern went showering while his successor, Mac McClellan, stomped out the fire by quelling Red McQuillen and Moose Womack.

That 4-1 lead seemed sufficient for the shrewd Brown, yet Kent Pfisterer's leftfield homer against the scoreboard in the eighth arose some doubts. Brownie, however, met the occasion by setting down Gus Postoles, Gorbous and Gentile, the 2-3-4 punch of the Dodgers, in rapid order in the ninth.

Singles by Joe Rivich, Neill and Hancock booted home a run in the first. Pueblo tied matters in the third on Rivich's error, a fielder's choice and Gorbous' shrugged his shoulders in honest frustration.

A standing ovation greeted the new-found slugger as he rounded third. The Chiefs led, 2-1, and there was talk of Lin-

Homer-Happy Braves Slug Pittsburgh Twice

Brooks Clobber Cards, 20-4; Phils Win Pair

From Press Dispatches
The Milwaukee Braves smashed 12 homers to establish three new National League records and tie a major league mark Sunday in sweeping a doubleheader, 19-4 and 11-5, from the last-place Pittsburgh Pirates.

Ed Mathews and Jim Pendleton clouted three apiece in the twin bill. Johnny Logan belted two and Jack Dittmer, Del Crandall, Joe Adcock and Sid Gordon each hit one.

Pendleton's three came in the first contest. Mathews had two and Logan, Crandall and Dittmer one each. Mathews, Logan, Adcock and Gordon homered in the nightcap.

In the opener, Pendleton smashed homers in the fourth, sixth and seventh. Crandall belted one in the sixth. Logan smashed one in the fifth and Dittmer connected in the eighth.

Logan got his second of the day in the first inning of the second game. Mathews with one aboard in the third, Adcock a two-run sock in the seventh and Gordon a solo homer in the eighth.

Mathews three homers brought his total for the season to 43—tops in the major league.

The league-leading Brooklyn Dodgers scored 12 runs in the seventh inning to wallop St. Louis 20-4 for their ninth straight over the Cardinals at Ebbets Field this season.

Smökey Burgess' ninth-inning home run brought Philadelphia a 4-3 second game victory over Cincinnati after the Phils also won the opener, 4-2, despite a Redleg triple play.

Manager Phil Cavarretta slammed a pinch hit double to drive in three runs in the eighth inning and give the Chicago Cubs a 6-2 triumph over New York after the Giants had won the opener of the doubleheader 10-1.

The Eastern Nebraska Coaches and Officials Association will hold its first football clinic of the season tonight at the Chamber of Commerce. O. L. Webb, chairman of the Nebraska School Activities Association, will lead the group in the annual rules discussion.

The meeting starts at 8 p.m. ENCOA President Jack Hyland has asked all coaches and officials to attend tonight's session and every Monday night session.

All meetings will be divided into two parts—discussion of high school rules, and discussion of college rules.

Gridders Pose For Photos, Run One-Mile At First Drill

By BOB BERKSHIRE
Star Sports Staff Member

In the midst of a summer heat wave, University of Nebraska Coach Bill Glassford's first football drill Sunday started fall football drills.

The forty-eight gridders who accepted Coach Bill Glassford's invitation spent Sunday afternoon posing for the cameramen as the temperature hit 96 degrees.

Lettermen Dan Brown, Sioux Falls, S. D., blocking Ray Novak back, was absent. Brown is reported to be sick in California, and Glassford expects him to report soon. Earlier this week the Huskers lost lettermen George Cifra and Bill Thayer to the Army and Jim Cedardahl and Harvey Goth, who decided to concentrate on studies.

Sunday it was learned that End Ken Reiners, Center Ron Ramsey and Quarterback Duane Rankin will not play this year. Reiners, Indianola junior, injured his knee, and it hasn't healed sufficiently to permit him to play.

Ramsey, Tecumseh sophomore, will have to remain on the farm this year. His father died recently and he is needed at home. Rankin, who played quarterback on last year's T-formation team, was a junior.

The Huskers are in good physical condition, according to Coach Glassford, with a few exceptions. The biggest exception in point of weight and variance from what Glassford feels is his playing weight is Pev Evans. Evans has been requested to take off forty of his 240 pounds.

Only two others were specifically classified in the overweight category—Back Ray Novak and Tackle Bill Holloran. Novak tipped the scales at 225, and Glassford says he will be most effective at 205.

Concerning the possible use of a two-team system this year, Glassford said: "The best eleven men will be on the first team and the second best 11 on the second team."

He is generally satisfied with the team and summed up his 1953 prospects by saying: "This is a good workable group. Our only problem is how lucky we are on injuries."

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you. QUIRKS

LOS ANGELES—Home hunters, you think you have troubles? Listen to Mayor Norris Poulson: "We found a place which suited us just right. Paid a deposit on it and the deal went into escrow. "It came out, that before we could take over the place a couple of city easements had to be granted. Easements must be signed by the mayor. And if the mayor signs anything officially that is for his personal benefit, he is guilty of misfeasance. "I was the only person in Los Angeles who couldn't buy the place we picked out." So Mayor and Mrs. Poulson are still apartment dwellers—and looking for a place without legal pitfalls.

NEW YORK—A Brooklyn machinist who stuck by his guns and refused to accept less than $750 for shirt lost by a dry cleaning firm was "rewarded" with a check for $40,005.

James Farran, 31, feels sure that it is all a big mistake, but he still isn't going to return the check to the Kent Dry Cleaners.

The mix-up began when Farran took his checkered sports shirt to a Kent store to be cleaned and never got it back.

He filed a claim for $14.95, its purchase price. Months later Kent offered him $4, Farran said, but he insisted on at least $750. Then the big check came.

Says Farran: "Let them sweat it out like I've been doing since March."

SALT LAKE CITY—Gordon C. Coles thought he was the victim of a practical joke when a stranger rushed into his bedroom at 4:30 a.m. and yelled that his house was on fire.

Coles ordered the man from the room, then took a second look.

His house was on fire.

LANCASTER, Pa.—Edward Ruth, 63, was driving along a highway just outside Lancaster when he noticed two horses, just ambling down the road.

He told police he reduced his speed to about five miles an hour.

Then one of the roses backed up toward the car and started to kick. Flying hooves shattered the windshield, kicked in the grill, and battered the hood.

The horse galloped into a nearby field. Ruth limped his car to a garage, for repairs.
